

FUNDRAISING FOR COMIC RELIEF AT CLIFTON COMMUNITY SCHOOL

Student Council were fantastic at organising Red Nose Day, with several mad dashes during the week to Sainsbury's to restock on Red Noses! Thank you to all staff and pupils involved in supporting the activities, students and making sure students knew where to be and when! We raised a fantastic £678.85 for Comic Relief!

COMING UP

Bluebell Wood Hospice Colour Dash

Easter Egg Raffle for Bluebell Wood
A HUGE thank you for all our donations from staff and governors! Tickets on sale and prizes announced before Easter holidays!

Student Council Meetings after Easter
If any departments would like us to raise anything with students please let us know. Lots of subjects have already asked for this to happen to receive feedback from year groups they are trying to target.

SCHOOL COUNCIL MARCH ROUND UP

Y8 Inter-Form Basketball competition – over 40 turned up to Cranworth Road with 8.2 taking the trophy assisted by Cris Gurran's penalty shootout skills!

The Red Nose Day FT Quiz Champions were 10.7 with 9/10 and staff sweepstake winner was Mr Duroe!

We have secured a partnership with Tesco through FareShare to receive weekly donations from Tesco to support our healthy eating plans. We await our first delivery slot!

Two of our aspiring writers have entered short stories into the Wicked Young Writers Award. Please wish Ilysha Jukes (7.4) and Ellie Haywood (7.2) good luck if you see them! Tickets for the musical are up for grabs!

All of Y7 were set the task in FTT to write a Thank You letter as part of the University of Birmingham and Jubilee Centre for Character & Virtues national competition. It was tough to choose our top 5 to submit but congratulations goes to: Hammad Masood, Abisha Arunthavarasa, Molly Smith, Saleh Ali & Alinah Aksar.
